

Randy Edelman: "A Life...In 80 Minutes." Back By Popular Demand

Back by popular demand join world renowned composer, maestro, and pop recording star Randy Edelman as he shares the soundtrack of his life in a dazzling, and unparalleled piano extravaganza entitled Randy Edelman: "A Life...In 80 Minutes." Randy will grace the stage of the new chic venue "Chelsea Table & Stage" located @ the Hilton Fashion District Hotel, 152 W 26th Street, Manhattan, 10001 on Saturday February 26th 2022 @ 9:00PM EST.

Randy Edelman will celebrate the soundscape of his musical career with his sparkling and touching piano concert. He will be transporting his audience to echoes of the familiar with arrangements of his movie scores from "The Last of the Mohicans" to "My Cousin Vinny." He will also sing his new post pandemic anthem heard all over the world "Comin' Out the Other Side."

Randy will also be sharing hit songs from his solo albums which possess some of the most sensitive lyrics on the planet, while he embraces versions of his songs that have been recorded by some of the most popular artists of today including Barry Manilow, Patti LaBelle, Olivia Newton-John, Nelly and others. As a storyteller, Randy will present some funny and tender anecdotes about his life experiences as well.

The opulence of piano couture Randy Edelman lies not only within his music compositions but also in the romance of his attitude, and the enchantment of the keys when his fingers glance at them often sounding like liquid mathematics, or perfumed smoke or operatic punk rock. His performances are powerful and emotionally charged leaving his audiences entranced and astounded.

Acclaimed globally as master film music scorer Randy Edelman has composed over 100 popular films including: "XXX", "Gettysburg", "Anaconda", "27 Dresses", "The Mask", "Ghostbusters II", "Kindergarten Cop", "Twins", "Dragonheart", and an endless array of others. He is also recognized for creating musical themes for the Olympics, ESPN, ABC's "MacGyver" and even NASA. He has shared the stage with The Carpenters, and Frank Zappa, and has performed all over the world including at the Drury Lane Theatre in London and the Budokan in Japan...

Chelsea Table & Stage is a unique venue and restaurant where every seat feels like the front row. Experience some of the best touring performers on the planet and an ever-changing culinary and entertainment line-up. The 120- seat venue features state of the art sound and lighting a 10-seat in-theater bar. The menu features American fare, a curated wine list, and specialty cocktails. Experience the Fashion District's destination for the ultimate NYC night out.

All guests are required to be fully vaccinated in order to enter the venue

